

Join Tibet Society and be a voice for change

Founded within weeks of the Dalai Lama reaching India in 1959, Tibet Society was the world's first Tibet support group. We are a membership organisation, entirely funded by our members and supporters. By joining Tibet Society you will be part of a vibrant and committed voice that speaks out for Tibet through campaigning and lobbying... read more about our work

Tibet Society works for the freedom of the Tibetan people and their right to self determination.

Your membership will enable the Tibet Society to:

- continue our crucial work of campaigning for a fair and just solution for Tibet
- promote the cause of the Tibetan people's right to self determination; informing the world of the resistance shown by the Tibetan people in the face of ongoing brutal suppression
- lobby the UK government and other bodies on the issue of Tibet
- raise parliamentary support to hold the UK government to account on its stated policy and actions in seeking a solution for Tibet
- keep the issue of Tibet alive in parliament through working with the All-Party Parliamentary Group for Tibet and MPs
- foster greater understanding between parliamentarians from the UK and the Tibetan Parliament in Exile
- support Tibetans in the UK to make their voice heard and advocate their cause
- seek change and negotiation through dialogue
- help the Tibetan Government in Exile build their democratic processes
- publish up-to-date information on the situation in Tibet
- be part of and help implement worldwide campaigns for the Tibetan people's right to self determination.
